

As a citizen trained in journalism, I find it deeply troubling that the FCC is considering loosening further regulations regarding ownership of multiple media outlets. One of the cornerstones of a democracy is vigorous debate. Unfortunately, the Republicans running this country want everyone to speak with "one voice." Dissention is immediately stamped down. We need thousands of various voices holding our elected officials accountable. This will not happen if the proposed changes are adopted. Please hear the voice of an average citizen!